The GM Trust

CERTIFICATE

This is to certify that

Gudrun Schaffron

has successfully completed the Advanced Training Course on the Prechtl General Movement Assessment.

In the final test the holder obtained a high score on correct judgement and is entitled to use the Prechtl General Movement Assessment in research and clinical practice according to the criteria established by the GM Trust.

This certificate does not qualify the holder to give training courses on this method. Besides additional study requirements, the first step toward obtaining a training license is by attending several courses and passing them with excellent scores on judgement.
